

There is nothing more personal and private than your healthcare information. Lifecard™ was founded on that principle. Lifecard

TM adheres to the same privacy laws followed by physicians in the United States. Your personal information is protected under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). Lifecard collects anonymous information about visitors to our website. Information collected includes IP addresses, referring website, duration of stay, time/date, etc. This information is used for site statistics only and may be shared with third parties for marketing purposes only. Lifecard's site may contain links to other websites. Lifecard is not responsible for the content on these external sites.

TM

TM

TM

If your test results are positive for HIV, chlamydia, gonorrhea or syphilis, we are required by law to ask you for your name and address and submit to the Florida Department of Public Health {Section 381.0031 (1,2)} before we can reveal your results to you. In this event, by law neither Lifecard™, nor the Florida Department of Public Health can compromise your confidentiality. Any testing service(s) you use in the United States of America is/are bound by this federal law requirement.

We reserve the right to disclose your personally identifiable information as required by law and when we believe that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights and/or to comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal process served on our Web site. Lifecard™ reserves the right to make changes to the Privacy and Security policy at any time. If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes to this privacy statement and may post information on other places we deem appropriate so that you are aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it. Changes will be effective immediately upon posting of the modified privacy policy.

The Lifecard™ privacy statement was last updated on 10 November 2008. If you have questions or concerns regarding this statement, you should first contact us at info@sinsafely.com or write to Hall Longevity Clinic, 1674 Meridian Ave., Ste 430, Miami Beach, Florida 33139.

For any questions or concerns please call us at 1 866 9 DR HALL (1 866 937 4255). We would love to hear from you!